Who We Are

CCST Vancouver is an interdenominational seminary in Richmond, BC, committed to raising up pastors, mission workers, and lay leaders who will make a difference in churches, communities, and mission fields across Canada and beyond. For us, theological education is more than study in the classroom — it is a life-shaping journey with deepening of theological perspective, and nurturing of character and skills for ministry. At CCST Vancouver, students are formed to serve with wisdom, humility, and courage, bringing lasting impact to the people and communities they are called to shepherd.

Our Educational Offerings

Doctor of Ministry (DMin) and Advanced Diploma in Practical Theology (Adv. DipPT)

Advanced professional development for experienced pastors and ministry leaders seeking renewal, growth, and deeper impact.

Master of Divinity (MDiv)

For those who feel called to full-time ministry; a comprehensive biblical, theological, historical and practical curriculum, with an internship for field learning.

Advanced Master of Divinity (Adv. MDiv)

A pastoral enrichment program designed to provide advanced formation, deeper theological reflection, and practical ministry development grounded in a solid biblical foundation.

Master of Theological Studies (MTS)

For church leaders and members seeking deeper theological understanding. It includes a Contextual Ministry Experience for “on the ground” formation.

Diploma in Christian Studies (DipCS)

Graduate-level program designed for lay leaders who want deeper formation and a first step toward degree-level study.

Lay Theological Education (LTE)

Flexible, accessible opportunities including certificate programs, book clubs, seminars, workshops, and retreats for lay leaders and lifelong learners.

Our Distinctives

Holistic Formation

We shape the heart, mind, and character of each student so they are equipped to live out their calling with faith, integrity, and resilience.

Mentorship and Field Experience

Students learn in close relationships with faculty and local churches, receiving guidance, encouragement, and accountability.

Contextualized Training

Our programs are uniquely designed for Canada's bi-cultural, trilingual, and multi-generational church life in English, Cantonese, and Mandarin.

Flexible Learning

We offer a variety of learning options, including online, face-to-face, seminars, workshops, and spiritual retreats, suitable for students from different backgrounds and life situations.

Next Generation Discipleship

We are committed to equipping the next generation of Christian leaders through innovative programs and applied research, empowering both ministry mentors and young people to grow spiritually and step confidently into God's mission.

Academic Excellence

As an ATA-accredited seminary, our graduates are well prepared for advanced theological studies and ministry leadership in Canada and beyond.

We share vision to serve God faithfully

Our Community

We are part of a vibrant network of Chinese and multicultural churches in Canada. Our faculty bring decades of practical ministry and academic experience, walking alongside students as they discern God's call.

Students here journey together in prayer, study, and community life, forming lifelong friendships, ministry partnerships, and a shared vision to serve God faithfully in a changing world.

Why Support CCST Vancouver?

The church today faces urgent challenges: generational transitions, cultural shifts, and the need for faithful leaders. CCST Vancouver exists to equip leaders who can serve with conviction and compassion in this changing world.

Your support enables us to:

- Provide additional financial aid for students preparing for ministry.
- Expand access to theological education to multi-generation Chinese Christians across Canada, including under-resourced regions.
- Strengthen programs, faculty, initiatives, and facilities to serve churches more effectively.
- Promote wellness among pastors and ministry leaders.

Join Us in Building the Future

Every gift is an investment in the Kingdom of God. Whether large or small, your generosity helps us nurture leaders, build healthy churches, bless communities, and empower the Gospel mission across Canada and beyond.

Together, we are building life, nurturing faith, one at a time.
